Portada red wine 2006 - Wine Enthusiast Best Buy 85/100

Excellent ratings and awards at the Wine Enthusiast November 2008

Best Buy and 85 rating in the Wine Enthusiast was a great recognition to the price/quality of Portada red wine 2006. Here's the editor's note to the PORTADA: Typical of the wines from Estremadura, low in alcohol, offering great juicy fruit, very fresh, bursting with red currants and berries. It is balanced, a vivid painting of bright flavors. - R.V. (10/18/2008) - 85 / 100 The other awarded wines are: ESCADA DOURO red 2005 - CELLAR SELECTION - 92 QUINTA DO ROCIO red 2006 - 92 CONSENSUS Pinot Noir & Touriga Nacional red 2006 - 90 PATAMAR DOURO RESERVA red 2005 - BEST BUY - 89 VEGA DOURO red 2005 - BEST BUY - 88 GRAND'ARTE ALICANTE BOUSCHET red 2006 - 89 GRAND'ARTE PINOT NOIR red 2006 - 88 CASA DO LAGO rosé 2007 - BEST BUY - 88 DFJ Alvarinho & Chardonnay white 2007 - BEST BUY - 86 MONTE ALENTEJANO RESERVA red 2005 - BEST BUY - 86 PORTADA red 2006 - BEST BUY - 85

Portada red appreciated in Canada

The region of Lisboa was formely known as Estremadura. It runs along central coast of Portugal where Lisbon (Lisboa) is located. Very well balanced between old world rustic and new world texture you can expect aromas of saddle leather and red berries, green olives and wild herbs, sunbaked earth and cherries with hits of cedarbox. It is fresh and very smooth on the palate layered with red fruit, leather and tobacco. Simple yet complex all at once - drinking well now. Appreciation of Portada red 2006 in Finland

Young, very darkish aroma. It has black berries and plum for instance. Medium rich taste follows with its aromas the scent. It also has smokiness and sweet spiciness. The wholeness gets posture from soft tannins and fair acidity. A clear wholeness. Food recommendations: a common wine with every day meet and vegetable dishes. Also with rich pastas. * *
